Re: Updated pricing implementation – Effective June 1st, 2023

Dear Valued Customers,

Effective June 1st, 2023 and aligned with Watson Gloves bi-annual pricing reviews, please find attached your most current price list. 60 days notice is being provided for this updated pricing.

This new price list takes into consideration cost increases seen in raw materials, energy and fuel, freight, and other inflationary factors resulting in a weighted average increase of 0.97%.

Please note that Disposable gloves have been added back to this current price list. We also have added a tab that encompasses value added pricing for heat stamp, vending ready etc.

Effective April 1st, all pick-up orders will be invoiced at the time of fulfillment.

Watson Gloves remains committed to delivering outstanding innovation, high quality, and exceptional customer service to our valued partners.

We thank you for your continued support.

Sincerely,
Kasey Whitman – President
